

Fairly positive 6th Street

When the Positively 6th Street Fair returns Aug. 2, there'll be something for everyone — hot dogs and haircuts, balloons and a bouncy house, hip-hop troupes and rock 'n' roll bands, face-painting and free bags of produce. And the giant puppets of

SOUTHSIDE

San Francisco-based Sun and Moon Ensemble. The fair has a practical side, too. Staff members of more than two dozen government and nonprofit organizations will be there to give fairgoers info and advice on housing, health, safety and employment. The festivities, in Minna Alley a half-block south of Mission Street, will begin at 11 a.m. and run till 4 p.m. ■

Bringing Back The Heart of the Presidio

Discover the birthplace of San Francisco at the heart of the Presidio, the historic Main Post. Imagine the once lively center of a military post as a home for history and culture...past, present, and future.

Come for a walk and tell us what you think about proposals for a Presidio heritage center, an archaeology lab, public uses in the iconic brick barracks, a park lodge, and a museum of contemporary art.
